The Historical performance by the Jay Graydon Band is now on DVD !

The band is called, "Jay Graydon All Stars", yes, that's just a Dream Band, which has Bill Champlin, Joseph Williams, Steve Porcaro...all are Executives !

They played "After The Love Has Gone"(EW&F) & "Turn Your Love Around"(George Benson), as well as two Airplay Classics "Nothin" You Can Do About It" & "Stranded". They also did "Pamella"(Toto). All the performance are just incredible, and many people say it might be impossible to gather these musicians together one more time...

The DVD, Ward Records releases on December, 2007 contains their whole performance, done on the 19th of January, 1994. And the reason we call it "Historical" is that was Jay's very first live performance under the name of his own.

Jay Graydon is well-known as a successful producer, mainly in the 80's by the works with The Manhattan Transfer, George Benson, Al Jarreau and DeBarge.

He's also known as a incredible guitar player since early 70's.

Jay Graydon or his productions were nominated in the Grammy Awards several times, and he won "Best Rhythm & Blues Song" twice with the ones he wrote for EW&F(After The Love Has Gone) & George Benson(Turn Your Love Around).

And in addition, the project he did with David Foster, called "Airplay", received many respects from in and out of music business. And Airplay is still popular in Japan, where the album was re-issued a few times.

And after those studio works during 70's and 80's, Jay Graydon started off the flight as an Artist.

In 1991, he released an album by Planet 3, with two successful songwriters, Cliff Magness & Glen Ballard. It received a very good reaction in Japan and europe, and 2 years later Jay Graydon made his very first solo album, "Airplay For The Planet", which also got a great sales in japan.

A few months after the release, Jay Graydon came to japan to do his very first concerts....and it tells us that the History has changed !

It is no doubt that song selections are best of best of their songs, and the quality of sounds are really great. DVD of Special Edition has 2 audio CDs and a miniature of their Scandinavia Tour poster. The both editions(Special & General) contain a bonus section, which is a "talk-session" by Jay Graydon & Kenji Sano at Jay's studio, Garden Rake, in this year(2007).

We just wanna announce that "Please don't miss it !", as we will never see this again....
